సమా : 240 రోజులు (COMMUTED LEAVE):-

15-B Commuted leave not exceeding half the amount of half pay leave may be granted on medical certificate to a permanent Government servant in superior service, subject to the following conditions (1) Commuted leave during the entire service shall be limited to a maximum of (two hundred and forty days).

medical attendant or the Medical Officer in charge of a recognized sanatorium, in the case of those undergoing treatment in a recognised sanatorium, is produced. The prospect of returning to duty on the expiry of the leave should be assessed on the basis of the certificate given by the appropriate medical authority.

Commuted Leave

✓ 15-B. Commuted leave not exceeding half the amount of half-pay leave due may be granted on medical certificate to a permanent Government servant in superior service subject to the following conditions :—

(i) commuted leave during the entire service shall be limited to a maximum of two hundred and forty days ;

(ii) when commuted leave is granted, twice the amount of such leave shall be debited against the half-pay leave due ;

(iii) the total duration of earned leave and commuted leave taken in conjunction shall not exceed one hundred and eighty days :

Authors' Note :—The existing limit of 180 days at a time on availment of commuted leave in conjunction with earned leave is removed. Vide G.O.Ms.No. 384 printed at page 89.

Provided that no commuted leave may be granted under this rule unless the authority competent to sanction leave has reason to believe that the Government servant will return to duty on its expiry.

Note :—When commuted leave is granted to a Government servant under this rule and when the Government servant intends to retire or resign subsequently the commuted leave should be converted to half-pay leave and the difference, between the leave salary in respect of commuted leave and half-pay leave should be recovered from him. An undertaking to this effect should therefore, be taken from the Government servant whenever commuted leave is sanctioned to him. In all cases of resignation and voluntary retirement refund of excess leave-salary should be enforced, while in cases where he is compulsorily retired by reasons of ill-health incapacitating him for further service or in public interest or when he dies before resuming his duty on refund should be conferred.
